

Articulation Agreement
Between
Butler Tech/Fairfield High School—Engineering Design
And
Miami University Hamilton/Middletown
Department of Engineering Technology
(Revised: December 4, 2006)

Miami University Hamilton/Middletown and Butler Tech/Fairfield High School Engineering Design enter into the following agreement governing college-level credit awarded to secondary school students with advanced standing.

Students completing Introduction to CAD, and Advanced AutoCAD Applications at Fairfield High School are eligible to bypass ENT 135 Computer Aided Drafting* at Miami University. As such, this course will be waived from their curricular requirements. There is no cost to the student and, under normal circumstances, no additional credits are required.

Credit waiver will be applied after the following steps are completed:

1. Completion of the indicated courses with a minimum grade of a B.
2. Become admitted into any of the Engineering Technology programs at Miami University (Hamilton or Middletown).
